

50mm 53mm Screw Cap

The 50mm screw cap and 53mm screw caps are belong to large size, which is usually used for jar lidding. The smooth, glossy screw-neck cap with rounded edges provides a simple and elegant finish to the tube package to meet the needs of any application in a variety of markets.

Aluminum screw caps have good sealing properties and can effectively prevent oxygen and light from entering, thus maintaining the freshness and taste of the product. In addition, aluminum is lightweight and corrosion-resistant, which is environmentally friendly and easy to recycle. Its surface can be printed for brand promotion and product identification.
